

Chapel Unveiling Celebrated with Benefactors and Volunteers

January 16, 2016 the Missionary Sisters of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus celebrated a special Mass and Brunch honoring their donor and volunteer relationships while unveiling and rededicating their newly renovated chapel. Nearly one hundred friends and mission partners shared in the Sisters' joyful gratitude to their individual MSC donors and to grantors such as Colonial Oaks Foundation and S.O.A.R!. Their combined gifts enabled the Sisters to make necessary improvements including the installation of new air conditioning and improved sound and electrical systems, as well as various repairs and a fresh coat of paint.

As religious Sisters the chapel is of utmost importance to community life. It is the Sisters' sacred space wherein they house the Blessed Sacrament; meet for daily Eucharist; continue their daily ministry of prayer; enhance community living; and invite friends and family to join them in celebrating the joys and sorrows of life. This renovation provides improved opportunities for reverence, communication, community-building, and mission extension well into the future.

So it is with much joy that the MSC Sisters express their eternal gratitude to their friends, donors and volunteers who allow them to do so much continued on page 7

The beautifully renovated chapel inspired a celebratory mass presided by Fr. Michael Camilli, MSC and Deacon Ed Sanders. Fr. Camilli, who was educated by the MSC Sisters at Holy Guardian Angels School, lovingly shared his memory of witnessing the construction of the original chapel and the lowering of the gigantic Sacred Heart statue down through the roof. No better symbol of the MSC charism exists.

SHV Volunteers Reap Sweet Rewards

Many people dream of finding a volunteer experience that is both fulfilling and necessary. And if fortunate, such experiences lead to a sense of purpose and genuine relationship for all parties involved. Two volunteers who have found such an experience, Cathy Moyer and Dolores Hehn, continue a relationship with the MSC Sisters which they initiated as volunteers many years ago.

In 2006, Cathy Moyer came to Sacred Heart Villa in search of a job. Unable to work the shift the job required, Cathy decided instead to begin volunteering; ever since, she has remained faithful to this calling through which she has gained "wisdom beyond belief and a closer relationship with the Sacred Heart." Cathy, who loves being a care-giver, values the many lessons each sister has taught her. She remembers in particular while mourning the passing of Sr. Sophie who "was like a mother" to her, that Sr. Helen Papan "put her arm around me, took me to her room and said 'Chocolates heal everything.' So we began a beautiful friendship based on eating chocolates every day." Through thick and thin, Cathy remarks that her volunteerism has help her built priceless relationships that have grown sweeter with time. continued on page 7

Volunteer Cathy Moyer and our beloved deceased Sr. Joan Swann shared a loving friendship.

Starlight Eve Shines Despite Snow

Despite the seasonally confused weather of April 9th which attempted to turn the annual MSC banquet into a Snow Ball, Starlight Eve truly did live up to its name. Following an uncertain day of snowflakes, guests ultimately witnessed the sun setting over the rolling greens of Berkleigh Golf Club followed by the rising of a beautiful star-studded sky – a fitting gift for those whose journey was long and uncertain at the start.

The Sisters' annual tradition of honorees began the evening as they welcomed Founders' Legacy Award recipients Doug and Helen Didyoung and Mission Partner Awardees the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association #160 of Lansford (FCSLA). The MSC Sisters and their one hundred sixty guests honored the unique ways these awardees spread the love of God in their daily lives, ministries and efforts. In doing so, the MSC Sisters hope to emphasize the ability within each of us to be impactful when sharing the Heart of God with others and to foster a desire to live the MSC mission: to be the Heart of God for others.

In addition to the awards presentation, volunteers prepared a balloon raffle, wine pull and silent auction, while our very own entertainers Simone Marino and Joanna Pressimone paired their saxophone and vocal talents to provide beautiful music. By night's end, Sisters and guests alike left with fond memories of stories shared, relationships strengthened and newfound friends.

The MSC Sisters wish to thank all who sponsored this annual event, those who attended and the Spring into Mission committee and volunteers: Mary Marino, chair; Carol Bourrie; Ellen DiGirolamo, Kelly Groh; Susan Kasopsky; Patty Miravich; Carol Noga; Rita Phillips; Marcella Shaver; Carm Sosik; Barb Spinka; Simone Marino; and Joanna Pressimone. The Sisters hold these mission partners and friends in their hearts and in their daily prayers. Their efforts are truly a blessing and a gift. ✚

Sr. Rosemarie Sommers, MSC and Master of Ceremonies Joanna Pressimone enjoy each other's company before dinner.

*"Christ has filled our hearts with the holy fire of His love.
It is His ardent desire that it may burn and the blaze spread everywhere."*

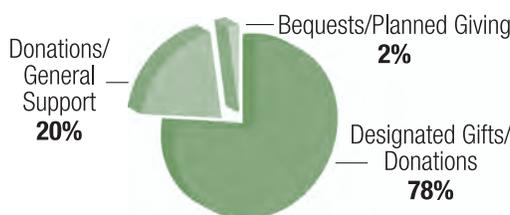

— Rev. Hubert Linckens, MSC

Thank you! YOU are one of many sparks which rekindle the fire of His love.

May we continue together to relight the flame so that the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus may spread everywhere!

Mission Updates

Stephen's Place

Founded and Directed by Sr. Virginia Longcope, MSC in 1993, Stephen's Place provides a safe spiritual environment for male parolees to transition into their Bethlehem, PA community (Stephens-Place.org). This well respected ministry and 501(c)3 proudly announces that generous donations and grants have allowed them to expand the hours and duties of their part time staff. This is an exciting time for Sr. Virginia who can enjoy the growth of programs and grant research and writing while passing some of her administrative duties on to others.

As a result, Sr. Virginia would like to share the story of Stephen's Place—a program that has given hope to those who had none—with anyone interested. Please contact her if you or your organization would like to schedule a time during the day or evening (610-861-7677).

Answering the Challenge

Sr. Lisa Valentini, MSC extends a very special thank you to the community of St. Mary of the Lakes School in Medford, New Jersey. When she contacted them in late November of 2015 to tell them she had no Feast of the Epiphany gifts for the younger children of the Dominican Republic, the students (pictured with toys) accepted the challenge. They collected 2,000 matchbox cars and 700 new dolls in two weeks! On December 22 St. Mary's entire school, K-8, greeted Sr. Lisa at a surprise assembly to present their gifts. To top it all off, the seventh-graders also packed the four large duffel bags, also donated, so that the toys could be transported by air.

According to Sr. Lisa: "They not only gave me the toys, they also gave me a donation to help pay for one new tire on the school bus. When I mentioned to the teachers that I actually needed 4 new tires, they also gave me money so that I had enough for all four tires! I was amazed to see their JOY in giving!" Many thanks to the adults and the students of St. Mary of the Lakes; you truly do live with heart!

Circus Update

MSC Sisters Dorothy Fabritze and Mary Seibert continue their work among the show people of circus communities, most recently with Circus Vargas. The Sisters presently are preparing six people for Holy Communion, two for Confirmation and one for Baptism. Please continue to pray for their efforts to "bring the parish to the people."

more together than ever could be done apart. They invite you to share in both their mission and their joy by stopping in for a visit whenever you are in the Reading area. Their chapel doors are always open. †

John and Patty Miravich joined a crowd of mission partners, friends and family to celebrate mass and enjoy brunch with our MSC Sisters. The Sisters feel fortunate and blessed to enjoy the friendship of all who were among us as well as those who wish they could have been.

Delores Hehn first came to know the MSC Sisters as a young school girl; the Sisters were her teachers not only in elementary school, but also in high school and in nursing school. According to Dolores, "there has always been a personal and spiritual bond between myself and the MSC Sisters. I have known, loved and been influenced by them throughout my entire life."

This influential bond led Dolores to begin her volunteer ministry among the Sisters at the age of 75 after making her commitment as a Lay MSC Associate. As an extension of her commitment, Dolores decided to live the MSC spirituality of being the Heart of God for others by reaching out to the Sisters' growing senior population. Since beginning her volunteer ministry in 2008, Dolores has been tending to the Sisters' needs in various ways. She assists them with the physical, spiritual and interpersonal needs of everyday living, calling this her gift of Christ-centered service. Through this service Dolores has learned: "to respect and value each Sister as a special, unique human being; to interact on a 1 to 1 basis with each Sister; to grow in all the virtues; and to practice the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy."

Dolores speaks of her volunteerism at Sacred Heart Villa as "a privilege and an ongoing learning experience for spiritual growth," and considers herself fortunate to have formed strong bonds with the women who "were so influential in the ongoing formation of my life."

When asked to explain Cathy and Dolores's impact on the senior MSC Sisters, Motherhouse Coordinator Sr. Marianne Baker said, "These women have become family to us. The elderly Sisters look forward to their visits. The personal interactions between the volunteers and Sisters are transformative in that our Sisters feel cared for and remember how special they are to the world and to the Church. The volunteer relationship is a visible sharing of God's love and truly is a mutual and graced blessing." †

IN MEMORIAM

Sister Joan Marie Swann, MSC
(Sister Marilyn) 1930-2015

Sister Joan Marie was the youngest of nine children. They lovingly referred to themselves as "the nine Swanns". Sister Joan attended Little Flower High School in Philadelphia where she first met the MSC Sisters.

For thirty-six years, Sister Joan taught either first or second grade in our parish schools in Allentown, Lansford, Nazareth, Reading, Limeport, Coplay, and Philadelphia. For ten of those years she also was the local superior in some of those communities. She was the motherhouse coordinator from 1984 - 1988. In 1989 Sister Joan was assigned to our Lady of Hungary School in Northampton where she served as the librarian. During this time (1993 - 1996), she also served part-time on the provincial council. In 2006 Sister Joan came to the motherhouse to retire. However up until a few months ago she still worked in the sacristy, preparing for our daily Masses.

Sister Joan was a wonderful teacher. This is testified by the fact that she often received visits from her former first grade students, as well as from the teachers with whom she worked. She had a tremendous influence on people.

Sister Joan loved her vocation. She loved community life and always put it before her personal desires. She included everyone and accepted everything. She knew how to enjoy life and how to bring joy to others. Sister Joan was always joyful and upbeat. Every one of us has our "Joanie stories" because she had the ability to add humor to any event.

Sister Joan loved her family and her family loved her. She was very dedicated and faithful to our MSC Community and so were her relatives. Each year the "Swann Family" was one of the sponsors of our Nun Run and this year thirty of them accompanied Sister Joan in her wheel chair in the 5K Run /1K Walk.

Sister Joan had many interests, both profound and mundane. One of her loves was for music, especially county-western sung by her hero, Roy Rogers. His signature song, "Happy Trails to You, Until We Meet Again" became her wish to us in these last days as she prepared for the most important journey in her life.

One of the staff members at Sacred Heart Villa spoke succinctly about Sr. Joan: "No words can say how wonderful Sister Joan was, always pleasant, always there to help others." We are most grateful that God called Sister Joan to our MSC Congregation so that we could see His goodness, His all-embracing love, His genuine interest in others and His great joy manifested in her life. †
