

Sr. Francine Fehrenbach, MSC

My life as an MSC Sister certainly has been full! Born in Philadelphia in the parish of St. Helena, I knew I wanted to be a Sister at a very young age. In 1950 I entered the Novitiate of the MSC and made my First Profession on August 19, 1952.

I quickly completed studies to become a teacher and before my Final Profession in 1957 I began a long career teaching grades 1 through 4 until 1990 in various places including: Nazareth, Hilltown, Athens (GA), Palos Heights (IL), Northampton, Philadelphia, Allentown, Coplay, and Haycock.

From 1990-1995 I enjoyed serving as Librarian in Philadelphia and Allentown, and from 1995-2002 I was a Tutor at Easton Catholic in Pennsylvania. I look back with gratitude and smiles upon the many opportunities and people I have experienced in my life.

Upon returning to the Motherhouse in Reading in 2002, I became the Assistant to the Motherhouse Coordinator. Today I am a resident at St. Joseph Villa along with several other MSC Sisters where we appreciate daily Mass and focus on prayer ministry. I am grateful for family, relatives, friends and fellow MSC Sisters, and I am grateful to God for all the graces I have received.
