

Sr. Marie Clark, MSC

I was born in Philadelphia but attended high school in Coral Gables, Florida. During the summer of 1955 I discovered the Missionary Sisters of the Most Sacred Heart in a magazine. The title was enough for me. I wanted to be a missionary and loved the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

My 66 years in ministry have included teaching in the Allentown Diocese and missionary work in Southwest Africa, Namibia, and Mexico City. I served in Provincial Leadership, worked at the Catholic Center of the University of Georgia, and am presently in my 12th year as a Pastoral Minister at St. Mary's Parish in Kutztown, PA.

These varied years in ministry have brought many blessings. Many, many people have added joy and variety to my life as a Missionary Sister. Today, I am happy to be able to assist, via internet, a woman from Afghanistan and another from Rwanda in their mastery of English.
